RECEPTION PROGRAMME APPRECIATED

Speeches Were Short, But Interesting.

GOOD ATTENDANCE.

Refreshments Were Plentiful at Strathcona Hall.

The fact that nearly every chair in Strathcona Hall last night was filled speaks in itself for the success of the Freshman Reception to Science and Medicine students. To say that the general tone of the evening's proceedings was as good, if not better than the preceding night, would be no exaggeration.

The item which made the greatest hit with the newcomers was Mr. Murray Brook's singing. Much has been heard about him and his Ceylon McGill Mission, but McGill students never imagined that he could please an audience as he did yesterday. His parody on "Annie Laurie" was his forte, to say the least.

Dean Adams, of Applied Science, gave a stirring account of McGill in "the making." Students little thought of the derivation "Burnside Place," or of the one hundred and one early facts of their Alma mater in her first days.

Capt. Mackay, general secretary of the S.C.R. at McGill, in a few remarks, mentioned about the bearing of Strathcona Hall and the Student body.

Coach Van Wagner was welcomed by his hearers, and his words of solid weight did not fall on deaf ears. He did not advocate a course in athletics as a college education, but he did say "that the student who gets the farthest is the one who takes an interest in his college athletics."

"Bob" Hall, on behalf of the Students' Council, expressed the governing body's position in the University. "Teedles" Thomson gave the meeting the right touch of stimulation by his energetic leading of a few yells. He put the plea of the Rooters' Club before his youthful audience to good effect.

UNDERGRADUATES INITIAL MEETING

Elections Held and Banner Presented to R.V.C. '22.

Undergraduates Initial Meeting — A meeting of the R. V. C., Undergraduate Society was held in the Common Room on Wed., Oct. 5th at one o'clock.

Miss Hurlbatt kindly gave the opening address, in which she welcomed the new students and spoke of the privileges and duties of the Undergraduate body during the coming reunion and throughout the year. She then presented the banner which was won by the class of 1922 to Miss Macrae the class president.

After Miss Birkett the President had welcomed the new students to the undergraduate Society, the Constitution of the Society and the report of the retiring secretary were read and approved.

The Reading Room and Library Committees were elected as follows — Reading Room — Second representative from 4th year — Miss Tuffy. Representative from 1st year — Miss Hutchison.

Library — 4th year — Miss Foley. 3rd year — Miss F. Banfill. 2nd year — Miss Hargit. 1st year — Miss MacLaren.

It was moved and seconded that the women students should sit in the west block of seats in the Convocation Hall of R. V. C., at the address to be given on Founder's Day.

PROMINENT GRADS. RETURN

Two loyal supporters of the Royal Victoria College are returning for the Centenary Reunion whom we are sure will receive a most hearty welcome by the staff and undergraduates of Royal Victoria College. These two are Mme. Peuch and Mrs. W. L. Grant.

Mme. Peuch will be better remembered as Mlle. Milhan, who came to the college in 1900, at the time of its formal opening. Owing to her capabilities and enthusiasm she soon became not only the sympathetic friend of the residents of the R. V. C., but also a forceful power in the department of Moderns, and was recognized as one of the most brilliant lecturers and teachers in the Faculty of Arts. Her energies were not directed to work alone, she was instrumental in organizing social activities and entertainments given by the students under her. In 1908 she resigned her duties at McGill and married Dr. Jules-Louis Puech, a well-known writer and scholar.

CONFERENCE ON SUNDAY AT ST. ANNE

McGill, R.V.C. and Macdonald Colleges.

MANY GOING.

United S. C. A. to Attend Church in Body.

A great deal has been said about the principles and ideals of the McGill S.C.A. As this is a student organization, run by students for student, and quite willing to hear and benefit by the opinions of all McGill people, it is open to any suggestions.

The board of directors of Strathcona Hall are holding a joint conference with the S.C.A. of the R. V. C., and also of Macdonald College on Sunday next, Oct. 9th, at St. Anne de Bellevue, with the purpose to talk over religion and other important problems in connection with their policy.

This "setting up" conference is being held on a "Sunday" for different reasons: One, because it is the best opportunity for students from the three colleges to meet. Secondly, on account of the fact that it has a good deal to do with Christian thought. In the evening the representatives of all three colleges are attending the Union Church at St. Anne's in a body, where service will be held by one of McGill's Theological professors.

The number expected to attend from McGill will be somewhat large, but there is no limit. Any student desiring to go is only asked to send his name in to Strathcona Hall before Friday evening, in order that a reduced train fare may be procured for him. The round trip will be $1.10.

The McGill and R.V.C. delegations will leave by the Grand Trunk train at 8.15 a.m., returning by C.P.R. at 8.46 p.m. It has been suggested that each student bring his own lunch.

This is an opportunity to find out the real standing of Strathcona Hall; and a welcomed chance to express your opinions to the boards of these three red and white S. C. A.

FROSH HARDSHIPS SOME STILL GREEN

Arts Junior is Stopped for Freshman.

Freshmen will be freshmen, and freshmen will be green. But after all, what would college life be without the yearlings. No sprouts, no laughs, no caps, but probably more ties. Speaking about ties, the Medical Frosh are exhibiting more old college spirit in this matter than the late and much-be-mentioned Si Whiffletree could in his most "spiritual" moments.

Early yesterday morning, a few of the Med. '27 class appeared garbed as usual in their favorite brightly colored cravats. When, lo! they lucklessly, or should we say fortunately met a group of their Sophomore brethren, who gently reminded them that they were not in correct attire, so far as the fashion rules issued by Med. '26 were concerned. The gentlemen then proceeded carefully to remove the articles in dispute, and sent the freshmen on their way to lecture. The entire class forthwith entered into the spirit of the affair, and ties came off pronto.

Another amusing incident occurred when a group of Medicals mistook popular Junior Arts athlete for a Freshman, and were about to relieve him of a very highly prized cravat. Fortunately he was recognized in time to prevent such an indignity being perpetrated on one so innocent.

Talking of Arts and Commerce immediately causes one to link the Frosh here up with the red and white caps, which greet the observer's eye, as they go bobbing about the campus. It is found that freshmen treat the

STUDENTS WANTED FOR NEWSPAPER WORK

A number of candidates are required to try out for positions on the staff of the McGill Daily. Any student may join the staff, experience being entirely unnecessary, and will be given every opportunity to do newspaper work of every description. The present members of the staff will give a part of their time to the work of instructing newcomers.

After about one month, the permanent staff will be chosen from the candidates according to their ability to cover assignments. Men wishing to join the staff may apply at the office of the McGill Daily, in the basement of the Union, between the hours of 1.30 and 2 p.m., or after 7.30 o'clock any evening this week. The desk porter in the Union will direct new men to the office.

THE PRINCIPAL'S ADDRESS.

Just one year and one day ago, in Convocation Hall, Sir Arthur Currie launched a challenge to McGill and to Canada, a challenge vibrating with vigour and optimism, that electrified the biggest Convocation ever held in that hall, and that will echo for years in the hearts of those of McGill who heard it.

Again, to-day, Sir Arthur will deliver an opening address in Convocation Hall. He will have a stronger challenge to us all; a challenge backed by the realization that he has already done a mighty work for Alma Mater, that he has brought her through the first year of a great reconstruction, stronger and better for his guidance. And as he, perhaps, pauses for an instant in his remarks, he will hear the hum of builders in the distance, building already the houses of the Greater McGill, those voices that were urging him when he cried out his mighty concluding appeal last year, "Let us keep faith with those who fell." And he will put new enthusiasm into his hearers, and faith in him and in McGill, because Sir Arthur himself has kept faith.

GREAT INFLUENCE OF A UNIVERSITY

President of Columbia Explains its Broad Sphere.

The interpenetration of society and of the State by the modern universities has only just begun. Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler declared last night at a dinner in honor of his twentieth year as President of Columbia University. Outlining the rapid growth of the institution during those two decades, he said that it had come to be recognized "as a singularly well organized and effective agency of the intellectual and spiritual life of man, and as one of the great citadels of liberty at a time when the world is being increasingly given over to the rule of compulsion and of force."

During the past generation, Dr. Butler said, Columbia University had led the way, not only in educational advances but also in its conception of the university as an institution of constant public service.

"When a Columbia professor is summoned to do a public act, or to share in public councils, whether in Washington or in Albany, or in China, or in Japan, or in India, or in Persia, or in South America, or in any part of Europe, his going is looked upon not as a withdrawal from academic activity, but as a manifestation of academic activity of the very best and most useful type," he continued. "The inter-penetration of society and of the State by the modern universities has only just begun. This penetration was probably greater in the twelfth and thirteenth centuries than it has ever been since, but conditions were far different in those days and life was simple indeed when contrasted with this turbulent and complex twentieth century."

"We have become great in size, in scope or rigorous policies of exclusion that would lead almost any other institution to have closed its doors. We have gained enormously in resources, despite our unwillingness to flatter to wealth or to agree to shape, in any degree, our academic policies in return for gifts. We have clearly demonstrated that liberty and independence are not only wise in themselves, but that they are also the best policy. So many individuals and influences are rocking the boat of civilization, apparently out of of curiosity as to how

PROMINENT GRADS RETURN.

During the war Mme Puech was busily engaged in work for refugee children and was one of the founders of La Sauvegarde des Enfants. Since leaving McGill, Mme Puech has been the constant friend and helper of many a stranded and lonely student in Paris; and now she comes to join with many others in the commemoration of the hundredth anniversary of the institution in which interests she has ever helped and guarded. She is sure of a very warm welcome both from old acquaintances and from those of us who know her by reputation as one of the founders of the activities of college life which we now enjoy.

Mrs Grant (Maude Parkin of Arts '03) is no less an honoured and welcome guest of the Royal Victoria College. As an undergraduate, when our Alma Mater was in its infancy, she took an active part in the moulding and building up of our undergraduate activities. She was leader of the small group of women who first entered the Royal Victoria College as it stands to-day. It is interesting to R. V. C. students who follow up the careers of their former leaders to note that as Mrs Grant came in her undergraduate days from a Canadian college of high standing, so she does now; for then she came as the daughter of the principal of Upper Canada College (Sir George Parkin), now she returns as the wife of the Principal of that same great educational institution, her husband, Major Grant holding the position.

There will be many other R. V. C. graduates of distinction returning who will be received with the sincerest welcome, these two examples of many others and it is interesting to refresh our memory before hand of their past doings so that when they arrive we will feel at once an increased bond of friendship and fellowship.

nearly it can be tipped over without capsizing, that it is doubly important for our university to teach and to show steadiness of purpose, steadiness of method and steadiness of comprehension in dealing with novelties as they arise to confront us. Common sense is the highest type of genius and by no means the least rare."

BAND TRYOUT TONIGHT FOR FIRST TIME

In the Union at Ten Minutes After Five.

BIG CROWD WANTED.

Chub Le Baron is to Lead Again This Year.

In the band-room on the top floor of the Union to-night, at 5.10 p.m., the band will hold its first work-out of the season. Chief Le Baron will lead the band again and it goes without saying that it will be even better than last year.

All last year's men are expected out and a special appeal is made to any new men around college who can play band instruments to be sure to turn out at this evening's work-out. There are eight instruments down at the band room and any men who have horns, clarinets, drums or Cornets should bring them with them.

The following men of last year's band are needed out to-night to form a nucleus for this season.

Smith F. M. —Arts
Smith B. F. —Meds.
Stephens L. E. —Commerce.
Woodman, —Dentistry
Fortune, Allen, Bod, McGillway.
Weames —Science, Mathews.
And any others who can too.
The time is growing very short now before the Toronto game and a full turnout is looked for.

All up then and the jazz is on.

cap situation in a variety of attitudes. Some consider them a handy affair, a few find them bothersome and unnecessary, but the majority derive a certain pride from their new headgear. In proof of this we offer the following story which was told the "Daily" last night.

"At least one Commerce '24 man is the superlative degree in verdancy. To-day our friend Brewer of B. W. and F. fame, was accosted by one of the rah-rah boys, who evidently hails from the tall timbers; where his head had room to spread, with the following tearful plea. "Please, Sir, Mr. Branch sent me to you about my cap. I-I-I really don't mind wearing once, b-b-but this is a little small. Can you give me a 9 10-11?"

RECEPTION PROGRAMME APPRECIATED.

It would be quite out of place if a word of appreciation were not said for the men who have turned out on two occasions with the Orchestra, which has been of unmentionable effect in bringing these Receptions up to their standards. No less is much credit due to "Jim" Ross and his committee, who have done their best to produce two good programmes.

The refreshments were not only exceptionally plentiful on both evenings, but also were of a tasty selection.

It was with regret that the Principal was unable to be present, owing to pressing business.

Those who wish to take in this game had better buy their tickets immediately.

JUNIORS WIN FIRST GAME OF SEASON

Loyola Outplayed by Red-and-White.
SHAG SATISFIED.
Heavy Line-up Trimmed to Tune of Sixteen to Five.

The Juniors inaugurated the season by taking the measure of Loyola College by a score of 16 to 5. The score gives no indication of the play which for three quarters of the time was all in favour of the Red and White. Shag was more than pleased with the showing of his cubs, many of whom are for higher honors in the near future. Loyola showed a lack of snap and finish to their play which proved detrimental to every trick formation. Their line looked much heavier than McGill's but this advantage was set at naught by the clever manner in which the Shagmen stopped their plays almost before they got going properly. For McGill, the outstanding men were Adams and Stearns on the back division and Cope and Robertson at outside wings. These four men showed more than ordinary ability for Juniors and should move up to the second squad before very long. For Loyola, Wendling Anglin and Magann were outstanding and it was mainly due to their efforts that the score was not greater. The line-up was as follows:

McGill	Loyola
Ahinovitch F. W.	Suinaga
Hutchison L. H.	Anglin
Adams R. H.	Gain
Stearns C. H.	Wendling
Cope O. W.	Bray
Robertson O. W.	Magann
Donegan M. W.	Kelly
Vineberg M. W.	Talley
Rorke I. W.	Brennan
Marler I. W.	Malloy
Matthews Centre	Gorozpe
Referee J. O'Neil	Gallery
Judge of Play Carl Work.

ENGLISH RUGGER TEAMS OUT TO-DAY

New Men Urged to Turn Out.
The last heavy English Rugby practice before Saturday's games will take place on the old Campus to-day at 4 p.m. Two teams have been selected to play a practice game to-day. The following is the line-up:

"A" Team.
Full back—Bradshaw.
Three-quarters—McDougal, Manson, Helnick, Solloway, Budden.
Halves—J. McIntosh, Kelly, Day.
Five-eighth—Kemp.
Forwards—Lochead, McLean, Rankin, Wilson, Blundell, Patterson, A. R. Lawrence, Trites.

"B" Team.
Full back—To be chosen.
Three-quarters—Anglin, Bradley, Peacock, Reid, McKinnon, Gooch.
Halves—C. A. McIntosh, Clarke, Cooper, Brinchley.
Forwards—Mitchell, Patterson, Duncan, Fraser, Bearsto, L. A. Watson, G. L. Laidlaw, Branch.
In addition to the above, any other men who turn out will be given a try-out for a place on one of Saturday's teams. Several new men have been turning out, and the manager is sorry to have forgotten their names. They are especially urged to attend to-day's practice. Everybody out—on time on the old Campus, at 4 p.m.

PASTEBOARDS ARE NEARLY ALL GONE

Never in the history of Intercollegiate football at McGill has there been such a heavy sale of tickets as has been the case within the last few weeks for the McGill-Varsity game. There is a steady line of applicants at the pasteboards will not last more than another day.
In order to accommodate the students before the rest of the rugby loving-public the tickets have been kept at the Union so that they might be easily obtained. At the present time there are very few of them left and, if these are not grabbed up immediately, they will be sent downtown to be sold to the general public.
There will be at least two persons wishing to secure tickets for everyone who is able to do so, so that anyone who really intends to see the game should buy them at once. Of course, preference is always be given to McGill men but, as the tickets will all be disposed of before the end of the week, they cannot be accommodated next week.

MISLEADING
Students who judge a course by its first meeting, in which the professor says, "that will be all for to-day," are billed for a cruel blow next week when the textbooks arrive. —Daily Iowan.

SENIORS SHOWING FINE TEAM-WORK

Practice Game With M.A.A.A. Inspired Confidence.
Those who were privileged to attend the practice game against M. A. A. A., were more than agreeably surprised at the showing of the senior team. It was generally supposed that McGill would have very little trouble in disposing of the squad from Peel street but few imagined that the margin would be so great. From the very beginning, when Art. Ross kicked off, till darkness precluded further play, Shaughnessy's Stalwarts swept through the opposition cutting off plays and stopping runners who had just commenced to run. The superiority of the Red and White aggression was so great that Shag several times had to call a halt when a McGill runner was on his way to a touchdown.
It would be hard to pick an outstanding player on the team every man seemed to be working in perfect co-ordination with his team mates, and as a result, only one trick play failed to work, this failure being due to Boo Anderson passing the ball after he was tackled.
Due to their showing yesterday, the team's stock has shot up several points and by the time the team lines up against Varsity there will be plenty of the well known long green riding on McGill. There is plenty of work still to be done, but if the same progress is made during the next ten days then there will be reason for the confidence shown by this display of "the muck called Gold".

INTERNATIONAL MEETS IN VIEW

Swimming Club Holds First Meeting of Year.
Yesterday at 5 p.m., the McGill University Swimming Club held its first meeting. Although the turnout was not as large as expected, much enthusiasm was displayed by the newcomers.
The schedule for the season was discussed and satisfactory dates arranged for all games. A letter was read from Brown University asking us for possible dates for a meet with them this year. The executive was to take this matter up at once, and also to write to other American Universities near Brown.
The first practice is to be held to-day, October 6 at 5.15 at the Central Y. M. C. A. Every man who is interested in swimming is earnestly asked to turn out as the first polo game is on the nineteenth.

STUDENTS TAKING PART IN PAGEANT

Rehearsals Being Carried on All This Week.
The following graduates and undergraduates have been asked to take part in the pageant—
H. Nichol—Arts '20.
J. Nichol—Arts '20.
R. Savage—Arts '20.
E. Monk—Arts '19.
J. Spier—Arts '21.
H. Higginson—Arts '21.
J. Henderson—Fourth year.
K. Newnam—Fourth year.
M. Fry—Fourth year.
W. Birkett—Fourth year.
S. Snyder—Fourth year.
R. Shatford—Fourth year.
D. Shaysles—Fourth year.
M. Tait—Fourth year.
F. Brown.
The first rehearsal is to be on Saturday morning, time and place to be announced later. Please watch the Daily for further news concerning rehearsals.
The following women students have been selected to take part in dances in the fourth scene of the pageant—
T. Rough—Fourth year.
M. Leggatt—Third year.
L. Kerr—Third year.
McWatters—Second year.
These students are asked to come to the first rehearsal at 7.30 o'clock sharp on Thursday evening.
The following students are requested to come to a rehearsal promptly at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon—
A. Lamb—Third year.
A. Roy—Third year.
P. Murray—Second year.
M. Bishop—Second year.
M. Grigg and Z. Slack, both of second year, are asked to attend a rehearsal at 4.30 o'clock promptly on Thursday afternoon.
Because of the short time remaining for rehearsing, it is absolutely necessary for those taking part in the dances to be on time at the practices in order to make the pageant a success.

GRADUATES.

During the past summer several recent graduates from McGill have tried their luck in the new game of Marriage. One of these is F. Gordon Green of Science '21. "Steve" as he was popularly called married Miss Anna Jackson B. A., on October 4th in Fredericton N.B. M. Morton Durant also of Science '21 to Miss Erma Carter of Truro N. S., a few weeks ago.
To both these McGill men the best of success is wished by their old college friends, many of whom are still at McGill.

ECONOMICS CLUB EXECUTIVE MEETS

Opening Meeting to be Held October 20th.
At a short meeting held yesterday by the executive of the Economics Club to determine on a policy and programme for the year, it was decided that the sooner the club gets started the better. Accordingly Thursday October 20th was selected as the date for the opening meeting, at which one paper will be read. After the reading of the paper a list of subjects will be chosen for papers and discussions at the ensuing meetings, which will be held at intervals of about four weeks throughout the session, concluding with an open meeting at the end of March. Various business matters will also be discussed, such as the question of fees, of which there have been none in the past.
The club membership is open to all students of Economics at McGill, and it is hoped that a large number of second year Arts and Commerce men will take an interest in the organization. They will find it helpful to their work, the informal discussions after all papers being of particular value. Dr. Leacock, the head of the department, is the honorary president of the club, and Dr. Hemmeon and Mr. Sandwell the honorary vice-presidents. During Mr. Viner's stay at McGill it is hoped that he will also help the club by attending its meetings and guiding the discussions along the proper channels.

ROOTERS BAND

Bandmen—anyone who can play a horn, flute or any band instrument, is requested to be on hand to-night at 5.10 sharp at the band room, McGill Union. Chub Lebaron, Rooters' band leader, will be on deck, and this, besides being an organization meeting, will give him an idea of what there are some instruments on hand belonging to the band, but anyone who has a band instrument of his own, bring it along.
It is hoped that all last year's bandmen will be out to help things get going, and that the new men will also turn out in numbers.

Dr. J. W. Bridges, Associate Prof. of Psychology.

Word has been received that Dr. G. W. Bridge has been appointed Associate professor of Psychology at the University of Toronto. It is of interest to McGill people for more reasons than one.
Dr. Bridges graduated from McGill in 1911 took a post graduate course at Harvard where he obtained his Ph.D. degree in 1914.
His career already has been checked with considerable credit, not only at McGill in his student days, but also since then. In 1914 he was made assistant Professor of Psychology at Ohio State University; while during the war he served in the United States Army as Psychological examiner.
Although young, Dr. Bridges has published several interesting publications. While a student at McGill he printed his first paper on Psychology which was of a high type. A short time ago, when his two books on Abnormal Psychology were issued they were received with much distinction in academic circles.
As an authority on Abnormal Psychology Dr. Bridges is well known both in Canada and the United States. It is with much satisfaction that McGill learns of the success of one of her recent graduates.

NO RESERVATIONS FOR VARSITY GAME

No further tickets will be reserved for the Varsity game on the 15th. As the demand is so great the authorities can't afford to risk depriving those who call from securing the few remaining seats.
Forever all seats now being reserved will be put on sale unless called for immediately.

MORE MEN NEEDED BY HARRIERS

Successful Run Last Night—New Material Essential.
SATURDAY, 10.30.
Toronto Had Hundred Entries—McGill Twenty—Meet on Oct. 19

Yesterday afternoon a little more encouragement was given the officials of the Home Club when several new men turned out to do their bit for their college in the way of Athletics. Some no doubt found that a run with the club is an excellent way of obtaining then "gym attendance": others with good opinions in view: The truth still remains despite the fact that we are having as good a number of Harriers out as in previous years, yet when the McGill Club is compared with those of our rivals it is a poor contrast. Last year, "Varsity had over a hundred entries in her Interfaculty harrier race". R.M.C. had then total number of students entered, while queen's had an equally large number. McGill had "twenty". Going on that basis we have beaten our "1920" standard.
The aims of the club executive are to have at least seventy competitions instead of "20" of last year. This can only be achieved if every runner, good, bad or indifferent will keep turning out to the tri-weekly runs which are held on Monday and Wednesday at 5 p.m., and Saturday at 10.30 a.m. The present number of candidates is around forty but, these is no limit. Every man who can run is welcome to be on board at any of these "try-out" or at any other afternoon, at the Stadium under Coach Van Wagner.
Last evening's run was a success from many aspects and if new students from other faculties keep making an appearance as freshmen in Commerce have, there will be no doubt as to the final outcome. The run yesterday was over a two mile course at an easy pace for all, with plenty of opportunities of "shortcuts" for those who are making their first appearances.
The first interfaculty race is on Wed. Oct. 19th and the second on the 26th. The additional men out yesterday were:
Blumfield, G. P. Bethel, Packhom, G. Dempsey, Ogilvie, G. McCormick, G. W. Willough, R. M. Morris, E. A. Webster.

TRACK TEAM HARD AT IT EACH NIGHT

Large Numbers Preparing for Trials This Week.

HAYS OUT AGAIN.

Still Plenty of Opportunity for New Men.

Track prospect are looking brighter every day now that the men are turning out in large numbers. At the present time there is a squad of about one hundred candidates trying out for the team and it is expected that many more will be out within the next few days. It is very difficult for the coach to find out what the individuals are capable of with such a large crowd to handle but he takes time to talk to each one and the trials will show what men are best.

The news that Hay would be out with the track men was welcome to the lovers of the cinder strip. Hay is almost a sure point winner in the Inter-collegiate meet if he gets into proper condition and Frank Shaughnessy realized that the rangy runner would do more good for the college in that line of work than would be the case if he followed rugby. It takes a season to teach a player the fine points of the pisking game and Hay will be able to get back into a rugby uniform as soon as the track season ends. As track takes only a few weeks in the fall he will have plenty of time to get down to rugby in the month following, and will be a promising player for next season.

Trials for the track candidates who are in the upper class will be held on Friday afternoon next in order to see how they are progressing in their work, and the Freshmen and Sophomores will have an opportunity of showing their wares on Saturday. It is quite a task to get in condition in the short time allowed in the fall, but the men are going at the work with a will and some good material should be developed.

Coach Van Wagner is very pleased with the showing made by the men who are turning out for track. Many of them will not be sufficiently advanced to make the team this year, but he expresses confidence that, if they follow the game, he will have plenty of material at the opening of the season next fall. The mere fact that a man does not make good showing this year should not discourage him; some of the best men who are running here were only developed after years of training.

The weight thrower is now back at college and will turn out to-day. Incidentally, there is still a great shortage of candidates for the weight throwing. There is room for several men on the team who are capable of handling the discus, hammer or shot and the coach would welcome anyone who would like to turn out for these positions. The broad jump is another position that is open for a good man, while all of the other events could still stand the addition of promising candidates. The squad as it is at the present time is a record one and it is expected to swell to still greater proportions within the next few days.

VARSITY ISSUES FRESHMAN RULES

Students' Administrative Council Issue Lengthy Report.

At this stirring season when the leading Freshman slinks tidily or skull-capped about the Campus, and the Sophs are on the lookout to catch him if he doesn't watch out, it will be of interest both to second year men and to their victims to read the following report made at the close of last term by the Students Administrative Council of Varsity, and issued at the commencement of the college activities. The council recommends the institution of uniform rules governing the conduct of Freshmen.

While our own Students Council has not seen fit to issue a similar ruling that shall apply to all faculties, the Sophomores in the faculties of Medicine, Arts, and Commerce have taken steps to mark conspicuously the juvenile persons of their juniors.

The following is the report as issued at Varsity:

Gentlemen:

Your committee appointed to deal with the matter of the institution of a set of rules to apply to freshmen of all faculties and colleges of the University beg to report that in their deliberations they felt constrained to keep two things in view, viz.:

(1) That any rules imposed by the Students' Administrative Council be quite independent of the initiation of freshmen by the respective faculties and colleges and independent of any rules imposed by the student government of the respective faculties and colleges.

(2) That there should be no attempt to submit freshmen to degradation but that for the good of all—and more especially for their own good—freshmen should be properly disciplined and constantly reminded of their extreme juniority.

Your committee begs to suggest in particular:

(1) That all freshmen be required to

NOTICES TO FRESHMEN

MEDICINE.

Owing to the hesitancy shown in complying with the wishes of their superiors, namely, to exclude ties from their wearing apparel, it has been found necessary to extend the time limit for medical freshmen to learn obedience. Freshmen will not be allowed to wear ties until after the "Grand Row-Wow" and the passing of the pipe of peace. Any Fresh will not find it profitable to be careless in observing this order.

NEWFOUNDLANDERS TO FORM PLANS

Executive Officers Extend Cordial Welcome to Returning Members.

Once again College activities are being resumed and in a few days the whole machinery of another College year will be in action. At the very beginning of the year work the Executive Officers of the Newfoundland Club wish to extend a hearty welcome to every Newfoundland now registered. Some have returned to continue their studies, whereas there are new faces which appear for the first time. Whether a former Student or Freshman you are invited to take an active part in every phase of the Club's activities.

In a very short time the Executive will meet to draw up a plan of the doings during the Session. Everything possible will be done to make this year's programme a successful one, so that each student from "Ye Ancient Colony" will be able to meet together from time to time and spend, either a social hour or discuss matters common to every son of Terra Nova.

WORDS AT PIECE RATE

Mr. Robert Blatchford of England has been counting how many words one gets in a newspaper for a penny, and how many for the same sum in the average novel. He makes it 63,000 in the paper, and 757 in the novel. You get only one story in the novel, whereas in the paper you get scores of interesting articles or paragraphs about real events and living men and women. You also get literary articles by well-known writers or public men on topical subjects. Moreover, many of the articles and sketches in the newspaper are better written than in any fiction except the best. Mr. Blatchford expresses surprise that people who will give seven and sixpence for a novel will grumble at threepence for a first-rate newspaper.

A MATTER OF TIME

A London profiteer was being shown over a large house which he intended to buy. The agent who showed him over it was surprised that he seemed to take so little interest in its history, for it was a very old house. The profiteer was apparently only concerned with the number and size of the rooms and the extent of the grounds. Finally the agent said, "This house, you know, goes back to Cromwell." The profiteer started. "Oh," he said, "then you've only got it on approval. I understood it...." "Never mind dear," interrupted his wife, "I'll get to know these Cromwells."

GIRLS SOCCER

"Two hundred fourteen girls signing up for soccer this fall have insured a banner year for W. A. A.," said Elizabeth Johnston, president of the organization at the called meeting last night. Practice will begin September 26 and will last until November 5 when the teams will be chosen. The tournament will be held from November 13 to November 22.—Indiana Daily Student.

wear upon the right sleeve of their outer garment a green brassard—of a size 6 in. x 4 in.—say—such brassards to be supplied as a Ways and Means Committee if the Students' Administrative Council may see fit.

(2) That no freshman be allowed to wear spats canes or derbies on University property.

(3) That for the Main Building of each faculty or college the use of one or more entrances be prohibited to freshmen and that prominent but small and neat notices be posted in each of such buildings to this end.

(4) That the student government of each faculty or college make a point of drawing their working parties, chore boys, messengers, etc., from the first year and that the Presidents or Heads of first year classes be responsible for this supply.

Your committee beg to suggest in general:

(1) That the enforcement of rules devolve upon the Second Year of each faculty or college.

(2) That freshmen who are ex-members of the C. E. F. (or etc.) be exempt.

(3) That any rules finally adopted by the Students' Administrative Council be submitted to the governing body of the students of each faculty and college for approval before final adoption.

(4) That any rules adopted be given prominence on the notice boards of each faculty and college and in the first issue of The Varsity of each Michaelmas Term.

COMMERCE and ARTS.

Kindly observe the following enactment of your betters—the Sophomores—and be governed accordingly:

"All Freshmen must wear the red and white skull caps provided by the Sophomores. These caps must be worn on all University property including the Stadium, and within the following boundaries:—St. Catherine, Pine, University and McTavish Streets. Penalty for breach of this enactment is not specified for fear of police intervention."

"Wear your caps. Obedience is one of the few things you must learn."

HARVARD-PRINCETON

Harvard successfully combated Princeton's open attack last year by a new altho very effective method of defense. As soon as any formation which looked like a forward pass was started by Princeton, the Crimson ends dropped back from the scrimmage line a few yards. The tackles opened up to take the defensive positions left by the ends and the defensive halves and quarter dropped back. Thus the whole of the field was covered and successful passes were few and far between.—Indiana Daily Student.

FOOTBALL MOVIES

Motion pictures of the Indiana football team in action will be taken at all the home games this year. In addition to showing the team in action, movies will be taken depicting the Daily Student staff in action. An effort is being made now to show a big football extra in the making at either the Franklin or the Kalamazoo game.—Indiana Daily Student.

TO TEST NUTS

Down at Ohio State they give "nut" tests to the freshmen. They were going to inaugurate the scheme here, but nobody's been found capable of administering the test yet.—The Minnesota Daily.

SCIENCE.

The Sophomores give notice that you shall wear winged collars of approved pattern with green bow-ties of standard width. Same must be obtained immediately from Sophomores by payment of small fee to cover cost.

Those do not comply with this regulation will be treated accordingly.

THE GOBLIN COMING TO AMUSE YOU AGAIN

Ask any man of the Goblin staff about the coming year's issues and he will tell you that they will be bigger, better, peppier, wittier and cleverer than ever. The Varsity has questioned some eight or ten Globinities, and they are all bubbling over with enthusiasm, and willing and able to talk for hours on the little fellows' chances during the coming weeks.

For the benefit of the freshmen, who have never come under his hypnotic influence, Goblin is Varsity's funny-bone. He appears each and every month, chuck-full of cheerfulness and with 32 pages of snappy cartoons, original jokes and intensely humorous articles. Every undergrad with leanings toward foolish wrifling or eccentric drawing is expected to contribute, and search parties are now out looking for talented freshmen. Any new arrival, who is inclined to forsake the path of serious artistic or literary effort and devote himself to nonsense, will find a reception committee and free cigar-buttles awaiting him at the Goblin offices, 8 University Avenue.

SPECIAL SHOWING SCIENTIFIC FILMS

All Invited Next Week to Engineering Building.

During the week of the McGill Centenary Reunion, a series of moving-picture films of scientific and educational interest will be shown in the Macdonald Engineering Building of McGill University. These films have been loaned by the Canadian Government, General Electric Company, Western Electric Company, Associated Screen News of Canada, and the Picture Service Limited. The object of his exhibition is to direct attention to the advancement of education by well-selected films judiciously employed.

On Monday, October the 10th, five-thirty to six-thirty p.m., Professors and Instructors of Universities and Schools are invited to be present. This constitutes the invitation. Individual invitations will not be issued.

On Tuesday, October the 11th, from five-thirty to six-thirty, members of Engineering Societies are invited to attend.

On Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, October 12, 13, 14, and 15, from ten-thirty to twelve-thirty, graduates and undergraduates will be welcome.

These films will all be shown in the lecture room of the Macdonald Engineering Building, which holds about three hundred and fifty. A list of the films will be published in the McGill Daily at a later date, as the programme will be varied from day to day.
